Encl: as stated

Technical Proposal

Need for this Study:

Energy plays a vital role in the human life and also in the economic development of a country. Hydro power is ‘clean and green’ and can thus support low carbon development paths. Combating climate change requires electricity generation from sources with low carbon greenhouse gas emissions (GHG), and because hydropower is a low emitter, it has the potential to contribute to the protection of a global public good; the global climate, and to foster economic growth and social development. It is this potential which brought hydropower back to centre stage.

Study Methodology:

The study will be conducted by frequent visits to some of the key hydel power plants in the state by our faculty members and student teams of ABBS for collection of primary data and in-depth study of Renovation and Modernization (R&M) of hydel power plants in Karnataka especially the Gerusoppa Dam Hydro Electric Project.

Deliverables:

Preparation of study report including the power scenario in Karnataka, Hydel power plants in Karnataka, Renovation, Modernization and Uprating of Hydro Power stations, monitoring of R&M Schemes and recommendations for RMU Works of Gerusoppa Dam Hydroelectric Project.

The study report will be submitted in three months from the date of placement of work order on Acharya Bangalore B-School (ABBS), Bengaluru.

Payment Terms:

100% payment will be made within 30 days from the date of submission of study report by ABBS to Paschim Hydro Energy Private Limited.

Validity of offer: The validity of offer will be 90 days.

Confidentiality Clause: The confidentiality of data and information will be maintained.

ABBS

Acharya Bangalore B-School (ABBS) was established in the year 2008. MBA is the flagship program of ABBS. In the subsequent year, 2009 ABBS School of Management was established to offer PGDM program. The Institute is accredited nationally and internationally. IACBE, USA has accredited ABBS and ABBS School of Management in 2015 for seven years. In both cycles (for 5 years each) ABBS is accredited by NAAC with 'A' Grade. The recent accreditation is from 2017 to 2022. The MBA program of ABBS is accredited by NBA in 2019.

ABBS has recently entered into a significant alliance with Centre for Research in Materials Management (CRIMM), the research arm of Indian Institute of Materials Management (IIMM). CRIMM is being considered as a Research Centre in Asia under IFPSM. CRIMM has association with European Centre for Research in Purchasing & Supply, Vienna, Austria, Centre for Advanced Purchasing Studies, Arizona, USA, and Centre for Advanced Purchasing Studies for Africa, Johannesburg, South Africa.

About the Conference

Logistics & Supply Chain Management (LSCM) is one of the major segments of all economies. It is important for a nation and to all business organisations. Today, LSCM has become competitive tool for many organisations. LSCM is changing the nature of many segments of economy. For example, aggregators have changed the face of Transport sector, food delivery, Grocery, both wet and dry delivery and many such other segments.

Digital technology is influencing almost every facet of our lives. Digitization has also brought change in LSCM. According to McKinsey's report, digitization makes future supply chains (supply chain 4.0) faster, more flexible, granular, accurate, efficient and agile in nature. Supply chain professionals expect digitization to bring significant economic benefits to both top and bottom lines. Companies with highly digitized supply chains and operations can expect efficiency gains. Companies across industries are investing heavily to develop their own versions of the digital supply chains. As a result, lot of supply chain disruptions are going to happen in the coming years. Under this backdrop, ABBS is organizing one day workshop and two day International Conference on 'Digital Supply Chain' in association with Centre for Research in Materials Management (CRIMM).

Conference Key Objectives

- To present research works on Digital Supply Chain.
